

Hi, I'm Marina.

Hello,

I am sure you are an amazing, strong and wonderful person and I want you to know that you have as much support as you can possibly imagine!

I would be so privileged to get to know you, tell you about me so we can connect, bond, and feel comfort and joy knowing how much we are in this journey together.

My name is Marina and I am very excited to start this journey. But I am not alone in this endeavor.

My identical twin sister, Irina, who is my “other half”, my P.I.C. “partner in crime,” my biggest cheerleader... will be there every step of the way to support and help care for a beautiful baby that I someday am blessed enough to accept into my arms, cherish, love and care for.

Can you tell which one is me?

I have always loved children since my sister and I were kids ourselves, we were always caring for neighbors’ children or for our own nieces and nephews in the family.

We have so many wonderful stories of how we would play, and take them to the park, pool, have picnics, play sports, read books, and so much more. We gave our warmth, care, and lots of love.

Family & Friends

My parents encouraged us to learn poems, read stories, involve in sport, art and music, they exposed us to cultural events and museum exhibitions. They taught us the values of family, respect and patience and I want to continue this tradition! I like holidays, when family and friends get together with laughs and stories and healthy homemade meals. My vision is to share all of it with my child; baking a homemade bread, salad, veggies, turkey for Thanksgiving, baking cookies & squeezing homemade smoothies and juices.

Where I live is a beautiful town with lots of playgrounds, recreational parks, beaches, great schools, restaurants, and amazing people of different cultures.

I just love animals and this is my little Nyusya, just waiting for someone else to play with!

SOME PARKS NEAR MY HOME

I have a Son who is an adult now and, boy did he love traveling with me as he grew up!

I have so much more love to give and I want to raise another child so they can have even more adventures of trips to theme parks in Orlando, historical museums and arts in Seattle, or just relaxing boat trips to the islands like Galveston, Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard and many others. I want to give more unforgettable experiences like enjoying a tour of Warner Brothers and Universal Studios and watch how the shows and movies are filmed , skiing or relaxing on the crystal beaches of Aruba.

I Cannot wait for the next
fun,
exciting
adventure!

Can you tell
which one is me,
yet?

Most Sincerely,
Marina (and Irena)

My schedule is flexible and I'm able to work remotely from home often, which will allow me to be home with a baby.

My twin sister and I both work in IT, which is really cool! We are very close and she is as excited as I am, and promises to be a huge part of my child's life - she will most definitely be the "cool aunt!"

We have so many funny twin stories and I can't wait to share some with you, as they are sure to make you laugh.

I would love so much to extend my family and give to a precious child, an unconditional loving home, a warm learning environment, and simply to show them the world.
