Dear Birthmother,

Hello. We are hoping to find an incredibly amazing birthmother whose love for her baby is so strong that she would take the time to carefully assess and match her baby with a loving and supportive home that meets her high standards. We'd be honored for you to assess our profile and consider us for the role of loving parents to your beautiful baby.

Thank you for considering our loving, silly family

The light in each of us honors the light in you.

Wherever your journey takes you:

May you be happy.

May you be healthy.

May you be safe.

May your heart be at ease

We consider ourselves to be an easy-going and fun-loving couple who enjoy spending time in nature and creating happy memories whether they're just in our backyard or at Disney World.

We have been married for over 10 wonderful years and lived throughout New England for the first half of our marriage before settling in Maine in 2015.

I work in orthopedic surgery. I love spending my leisure time hiking, being outdoors, cooking and watching hockey & softball. (I used to be a college softball player).

TARA

I love being a social worker. I enjoy spending my leisure time doing yoga, hula hooping, going to the beach, meeting animals, attending festivals, and planning trips to Disney World.

We enjoy crafts and creative projects like painting rocks for our flower beds, icing gingerbread people, carving pumpkins and doing home improvement projects.

Our adventures almost always include our wonderful family.

Our family is fabulous and are masters in not taking themselves too seriously!

Inside our cozy home we love entertaining our family with game nights and holiday fun! We recently set up a nursery for our future baby so that we could be ready to welcome them into their own loving, safe and welcoming space from day 1!

Ms. Vogue is our quiet 6-year-old greyhound rescue. She likes to sleep a lot but loves when we go to the park or backyard so she can run.

She is shy with new people at first and likes her space, but enjoys a gentle pet and being offered treats once she knows she's with a safe person. She especially warms up to children quickly as they tend to have the warmest smiles and carry the most treats with them!

We hope this glimpse into our loving world brings you comfort and hope for all the unconditional love, support, guidance and fun that awaits a baby in our home. Thank you for considering us for what would be the greatest gift of our lives. 💕

With love,
Tara & Allie
